

Profile of Apostle Dr. Naila L Ricketts

Apostle Naila L Ricketts is a Jamaican and resides in Portmore, St Catherine, Jamaica W.I. He gave his heart to the Lord in 1974 and was baptized in the “Church of God in Jamaica”. Inspired by the Lord he served the Lord at “The Church Dayton Ave.” as a street evangelist, Bible Teacher and Intercessor. He later joined the Assemblies of God, where he served the organization as the National Youth President.

He was ordained in 1992 as a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. After many years of dedicated service, Dr. Ricketts was consecrated as an Apostle in the Lord’s Church in 1996, and serve as President of Prayer2000 and its affiliated ministries until present.

Apostle Ricketts serves the body of Christ in the office of Pastor, Evangelist, Teacher in the JTT Schools of Prayer, and Radio Host. He is a Servant of God who flows in the gifts of the Spirit, with an apostolic mantle. He is a passionate advocate for souls and the Kingdom of God. He has served selflessly and faithfully in the communities of Jamaica for over seventeen years and has touched and brought change to many lives through the power of the cross.

Apostle Naila is renowned in the areas of church leadership, protocol and Christian authority, Intercession, Spiritual warfare and deliverance; he actively presents in Seminars, Workshops and Conferences. His messages of Strategic Intercession, Healing, Deliverance and Presence-Based Transforming Revival, transcends cultural and denominational barriers.

IN FAITH, WORSHIP and RELATIONSHIPS

Apstl. Dr. Naila L Ricketts is the President of Prayer 2000, serving Jamaica, the Caribbean Region, and other Global Nations. His affiliation includes Somebody Cares Caribbean & International. His association includes, the International Fellowship of Transformation Partners (IFTP); The Jamaica Association of Full Gospel Churches (JAFGC) and The Jamaica Evangelical Alliance (JEA), The National Christian Lifetime Awards (NCLA), The Blessing the Nation Festival (BNF) and endorsed relationships with many of the Denominations in Jamaica.

IN RESEARCH AND STUDY, Rev. Ricketts is a researcher and does extensive work in Spiritual Mapping, Identificational Repentance, and conducts Prayer Expeditions in areas of greatest need within the Nation. Dr Ricketts has written extensively and has accumulated approximately 2900 such Sermons/ Teachings that is widely used to edify the body of Christ.

IN ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

He has ministered extensively in Jamaica, The USA, the Caribbean, Asia, Australasia, South Africa and the Americas.

IN HIS PRAYER JOURNEY

Called to pray and to separate himself unto God; Apstl. Ricketts closed his engineering business in response to the voice and mandate of God. His cry is always, “Lord teach me to Pray”.

IN THE PILLARS OF SOCIETY

Dr. Ricketts is frequently required to pray with and for Leaders in Government, The Market- Place, The Education Institutions and various occasion of significant National relevance and is regularly required to represent the region in matters of Global concerns and Presence-based Transformation process. He is a living witness to the transforming character and deeds of the Sovereign God in our day.

Dr. Ricketts gives leadership to the annual National “Healing the Land” Prayer Conference; the National Christian Lifetime Awards, The Jamaica Prayer Stance, The Beyond the Veil Experience, The Blessing the Nation Festival, The Prayer expedition/ journey and The Journey to Transformation Schools of Prayer.

IN FAMILY

Dr. Ricketts and his wife, Sharon Peart-Ricketts serves as a fulltime ministry couple with two children: Stacey-Ann & Joed.